ILLEGIB

CONFIDENTIAL
August 20, 1946.

Director,

Central Intelligence Group.

My dear General Vandenberg:

CONFIDENTIAL

There has been received letter of your Executive Officer, dated August 22, 1946, requesting the assignment of the designating symbol "CIG-" for use by the Group in connection with the consecutive numbering of its contracts, bills of lading, transportation requests, and tax exemption certificates.

In order that the identity of the Group would not be clearly revealed by the true initials of the organization, it appears desirable to assign the symbol [ ] for the purposes mentioned above in lieu of the symbol requested. Said symbol was informally stated to be acceptable to your office.

ILLEGIB

The approved symbol [ ] will not be included in official lists circulated by this office.

25X1

Sincerely yours,

/s/ LINDSAY C. WARREN

Comptroller General of the United States
